Pool Safety

The pool is there for all residents and their families to enjoy.

Bringing glass into the pool area can be very dangerous. Broken glass can be invisible in the pool and it can severely cut little feet. The pool can be a happy and relaxing place. Let's all ensure that it's also a safe place.

Tradition Architectural Review Board Volunteers Needed

Due to recent resignations from this board we need volunteers. The ARB serves as the best way to protect your neighborhood from losing sight of the Covenants and Guidelines. Anyone who would like to take your turn on this committee should contact a member of the Board of Directors or Danny Phillips at 235- 9338.

REMINDER: Before you start a project remember to call the ARB or Covenants Committee to ensure there are no problems that may cost you time or money.

Tradition Social Committee News By Suzanne Strasser

As you know the pool is officially open and is in full swing. The water aerobic classes have begun and thanks to Juanita Moore, are a success. The pool clubhouse is a nice asset to the community and is being used to its fullest. Every day and some nights we have card games, aerobics, mahjong, bridge tournaments and meetings. This is a busy place!

The golfers came out for the June Bug Scramble but some got very wet! We had a rainy day lunch with raffle and golf prizes. We made the best of the weather and had a good time with our neighbors & friends.

The Tradition 4th of July Golf Tournament and Barbeque was a fun event. We had a great crowd, a beautiful day and fun raffle. The Results: 1st Place: Larry & Daune Barksdale and Les & Ruth Cox, 2nd Place: David & Pat Gould and Tom Flecker & Tom Flecker Jr., and 3rd Place: Rich Becker & Beth Carline and Steve Kozoil & Keith Shannon. Closest to the Pin: Harry Stewart and Autry Moore; Joanne Foster and Joan Sheldon. Longest Drives: Larry Barksdale and April Kuruc. Wow! You all played great golf!!!

Later that evening some of us even had energy left to go to the beach and watch the fireworks. How lucky we are to have a lovely beach facility to enjoy celebrating our Independence Day.

The Tradition Social Committee is now able to support the new Tradition Community Website for one year, thanks to your participation in the mulligan sales and raffle. We were also able to replace ten folding chairs which have seen a lot of use in the owner's pool clubhouse. Thanks for your support.

August 10th Beach Party at Litchfield by the Sea. Thanks to Pat and Armand Cocuzza for delivering the flyers. I really like volunteers. Hopefully, you have already made your reservation. See you there.

August 24th Dog Days of Summer Golf Tournament. Don't forget to sign up at the club.

September 1st Labor Day Golf Tournament.

September 20th Tupelo Bay Par 3 Golf and Margaritas! 5:00 PM. We will have prizes for golf and fun party. Sign up as a single, couple or as a foursome. Space is limited. Watch for the flyer in your mailbox.

October 19th. It was so much fun we are going to do it again. Bowl-O-Rama #2. Come out and enjoy the fun. (See below)

The Newsletter and the Website are working well to keep everyone in the community informed on events. Check the pool clubhouse bulletin board for additional updates and changes to the calendar.

Do you bowl? Did you bowl in a past life? Do you know where your bowling ball is?
Do you like multi-colored rental shoes? If so, you will want to join us at the

Chairman's Corner By Ron Belbutowski

On behalf of your Board of Directors, we hope you are enjoying summer of 2002. The very dry spring season took its toll on lawns and plantings, so as a result, you may have noticed many homeowners maintaining or improving their landscapes, helping Mother Nature restore the beauty of our area..

We have noticed that our community swimming pool has been very popular since summer weather arrived. We have not heard any complaints about pool behavior (shall we call it etiquette?) and compliment our residents who use the facility for being considerate. We also thank our social committee for planning well attended fun activities, including the bingo night in June and the Red, White, and Blue golf event on July 4th. We are fortunate indeed to have good facilities and an active social committee.

Do you think that everything about our common facilities remains the same? Well, look closely and you will note improvements are being made. We installed a new fountain at the recently dredged pond near the Kings River Road entrance, to clarify the water. We made irrigation extensions and placed additional sod where needed. Our contractor is continuing storm drainage maintenance, cleaning several outfalls. This fall (after the peak of the swimming pool season) we will add protective roof overhangs on the east and west ends of the pool clubhouse and replace doors.

Because residents, your Board, and the Buildings and Grounds committee were not happy with performance of our common areas landscape contractor, we cancelled the contract with the provider. Our new contractor, Pryor Landscape Co., did their first work right after July 4th and the improvement in appearance was very obvious.

The appearance of our properties enhances the natural beauty of the area and maintains the property values of our homes. There are a few properties not being properly maintained, and owners not meeting their responsibilities are being notified. One special area of concern is rental properties—in those cases we notifying the absentee owners. If there is no improvement, our action in line with the covenants is to engage a landscape contractor to properly maintain the property, billing back the property owner for the cost.

We note a number of trees which are dead or partially so. I want to mention it is the property owner's responsibility to have dead trees removed and dead tops trimmed away. The danger to our homes due to dead trees falling or branches snapping off during windstorms or hurricanes is obvious. There are at least dozen firms listed in the Yellow Pages who do trimming and removal. And, yes, please be sure to apply to the Architectural Review Board, who will grant approval to remove trees after inspection of the property.

Thanks for being good neighbors, and please continue to be safety conscious as we go from summer into early fall.

Willbrook Road Maintenance District
By Dick Albright

The expected turnover of the Willbrook Blvd and Kings River Rd. road surface maintenance to Georgetown County has still not taken place. In the November 2001 Newsletter, I stated it was expected the county would assume responsibility by January 1st 2002. Apparently my expectations were a "little" off. Maybe the date should have read 2003 vs. 2002. The County Attorney does have (and has had for some time) all the necessary paperwork for final review. Hopefully we'll beat the 2003 date. I'll keep you informed.

Architectural Review Board By Frank D'Amato

As I drive, walk, and bicycle through our community, I have noticed that the great majority of you are giving much time, energy and money in making your properties look beautiful. I want to compliment all of these residents for maintaining the beauty of our community. You also may have noticed the resale prices of homes have dramatically increased. This is a strong reason for all of us to follow the covenants.

Unfortunately, I must also comment on the smaller number of properties not conforming to the covenants. Many of these properties are owned by absentee owners. Others are folks who may not have read the covenants. Our committee is doing its best to remind all owners when violations are observed. The most common violations at this time of the year are the following:

◆ Rust on sidewalks, driveways, street curbing and house sidings.
Two sources for residential iron/rust removal are:
Waccamaw Management Company
41 Maintenance Road, Pawleys Island,
Phone: 237-9551

Thomas Supply
Highway 17, Murrells Inlet, SC
Phone: 651-6750

◆ Flowers/plants left in pots on front lawns.
These should only be on front steps or planted in beds.

- ◆ Cement and/or plastic ornaments, birdhouses, benches, plastic butterflies are not permitted on front lawns.
- ◆ Patio furniture left in front of houses.
- ◆ Cars parked overnight in streets for an extended number of days.
- ◆ Yards not maintained by absentee owners; we will contact these owners.

When in doubt, please check the covenants or call a committee member before spending your hard earned money. We believe everyone's intentions are good but sometimes they fall outside of the covenant guidelines.

Your committee consists of the following:
Debbie Massie – 237-7420
Harry Stewart – 237-1305
Bill and Jeanette Renault – 235-3566
Jim Lewis – 237-5159
Martin Robic – 237-8745

Getting to Know Your Neighbors By Joan Murren

Music has been an important part of New Jersey native Tony Freda's life since he started taking piano lessons at age 6. For many years he studied with Mary San Giacomina, a piano virtuoso and graduate of Juilliard School of Music. His first solo performance occurred at his elementary school when he was in 8th grade, playing Ernest Lecuona's 'Malaguena' from memory.

He played his first group gig at age 11 at a Knights of Columbus hall, receiving a salary of $1.25! He and three friends had formed a group that stayed together throughout high school, playing at small jobs and private parties.

Shortly after starting college, Tony's cousin was contacted by a friend of Connie Francis who was looking for a pianist to join a group called The Preludes. Tony auditioned for and got the position. He stayed with them for five years, performing nights and weekends while he went to school during the day. The Preludes performed in New Jersey at popular nightclubs at the shore during the summer and in the northern part of the state the rest of the year. The group also did backup work for Sunny Gale, Don Rondo, and Lou Monte.

Tony worked with various groups prior to going solo at age 33. In 1980 he and Cathy Alfano, a vocalist, formed 'Anthony and Little Dynamite.' For ten years they performed in restaurants throughout New Jersey and the Catskill Mountains in New York. The Catskill Mountain News advertised 'Anthony and Little Dynamite' as "Personalized Entertainment" for your listening pleasure.

In 1990 Tony began a stint as house pianist at the Old Mill Inn in Spring Lake, NJ, playing four nights a week. Here he met and became friends with actor Danny Aiello and worked in conjunction with Henny Youngman. He stayed at the Old Mill Inn until he and Ann moved to Pawleys Island in 1996.

While getting established in the Myrtle Beach area, Tony was called to play for one night at the Palace Theater. He was unaware at the time that this was an audition. He was offered a permanent position as the pre-show entertainer, playing for one hour in the theater lobby prior to each performance. After the 9/11 tragedy, he added a well-received ten-minute medley of patriotic songs. He presently performs three nights a week at the Palace and two nights a week at Rossini's Restaurant in Myrtle Beach.

Education was as important to Tony as his music, and he earned his undergraduate degree in Industrial Technology from Montclair State College. He continued his studies at Seton Hall University, obtaining a Masters Degree in School Supervision and Administration. Further studies at Rutgers University provided him the opportunity to work as an intern with the New Jersey State Department of Education. Tony's parents paid for his first year of college. His music paid for the rest. He taught Technical Drawing at Long Branch High School, Long Branch, NJ before moving on to Columbia High School in Maplewood, NJ. Here his teaching included an Industrial Technology course and supervision and administration of a schoolwork program for non college-bound students. His teaching career encompassed 35 years.

Urged by requests from his many friends and followers, Tony is currently making his first CD, an outstanding collection of some of his favorite songs. He records his music at home on a Technics piano, which uses a compact disk to capture sound, style, and technique. This multi-talented man plays golf as often as his busy schedule allows. During his rare free moments, he and Ann relax at their home on Tradition Club Drive with their Cairn Terrier, Cari.

Tradition Bridge Marathon

The 2002 Ladies Bridge Marathon has ended with a luncheon held at Pawleys Plantation. A wonderful lunch was enjoyed by all. The winners were all seated at the same table, a feat some felt was by design but actually was just a coincidence. The awards went to: First place, Danny Phillips and Joan Ruane; Second place, Norma Barrett and Mary Ann Keller; Third, Bobbie Fleiss and Debbie Massie; Fourth, Claire Kelly and Maxine Tache; and Fifth, Judy Migas and Shirley Sullivan.

The Ladies Bridge Marathon has grown and is to have two sections for 2003. Anyone who has been considering joining the Marathon needs a partner and should call Danny Phillips at 235-9338 as soon as possible. Play will begin in September and will conclude in June with another awards event.

A delightful evening was enjoyed by The Couples Bridge Marathon at their awards party held at The Tradition Club House. Many wonderful cooks evidently play bridge as the food was simply outstanding. The winners this year were: First place Norm and Barbara Nuding, Second place Jane Reynolds and David Toelkes, Third place Jack and Shirley Sullivan and Fourth place Ron and Eileen Belbutowski. Everyone agrees rankings aren't the only reason to play but it is nice to be recognized with a prize occasionally. We will be starting another year of Couples Bridge Marathon in September. Anyone interested should call Danny.

The Tradition Garden Club News

By Loretta Espey, President

Monthly meetings of the Garden Club are held at the Tradition Residents' Clubhouse. The first meeting of the new year will be Tuesday, September 10th. A social half-hour begins at 9:00 am and the featured speaker, Laverne Davis, will demonstrate silk flower arrangements, starting at 9:30 am. All residents of Tradition are cordially invited to attend. Membership dues are $10, payable at the meeting, preferably by check. Please join us!

The new officers elected at the May meeting are Loretta Espey, President; Barbara Dymond, Vice President; Regina Wichrowski, Secretary; and Mildred Culpepper, Treasurer. The committee chairs are: Historian/Photographer, Jeanette Renault; Membership, Nori Thompson; Programs, Dot Franco & Skippy Esposito; Projects, Theresa Mishik & Clare Kelly; Social, Caye Branca, Genie Burg & Joanne Stewart; Sunshine, Ann MacDonald; and Ways & Means, Joan Murren. A big pat on the back to all of these ladies who have volunteered their valuable time to our Garden Club. Ladies, we know this year will be special! Look for the Garden Club flier in your newspaper box in early September with further details.

Tradition Master Gardeners By Joan Murren

Five residents of The Tradition have completed the requirements for Master Gardener Certification. Michael and Valerie Cole, Ginni Swenson, Nancy Palisin, and Claudia Krauth all took the Master Gardener course given by Clemson Extension Service in cooperation with Brookgreen Gardens. (Picture on Page 12) The classes were taught by Gary Forrester, Clemson Extension Agent, and encompassed 14 three-hour sessions, a grueling final exam, and 40 hours of volunteer gardening at a place of the student's choosing. One of the main purposes of the course is to spread knowledge about gardening in this area and provide guidance as to where to look for answers to problems. The Master Gardeners Training Manual becomes a bible.

During the course they received core training in soils and plant nutrition, basic botany, lawn management, evergreen and deciduous trees, wood ornamentals, entomology, plant pathology, vegetable and fruit gardening, and landscape design. Mr. Forrester also elaborated on local needs, meadow and wildflower gardening, and plant propagation.

Following certification, one is eligible to join the Master Gardeners Association which meets once a month and offers a variety of speakers and projects. Each member must contribute 40 volunteer hours annually to the Association. The local chapter has chosen the Murrell's Inlet 2007 as a future volunteer project. Each month, volunteer hours and mileage must be reported to the Master Gardeners Association, which in turn reports to Clemson.

Both Michael and Valerie Cole do gardening in various areas of Brookgreen; Michael also conducts tours of the gardens and Valerie does flower arranging for the restaurant and Welcome Center. Nancy works in the gardens at Brookgreen, conducts botanical focus tours, and puts her course to work every day as Clemson Extension Service employs her. Ginni and Claudia have concentrated their efforts on the Cultural Garden at the Low Country Center, weeding, planting, watering, fertilizing and doing whatever needs to be done. This fascinating garden is implanted with old time heirloom vegetables and herbs such as feverfew, rue, hyssop, indigo, cotton, rice, peanuts, tobacco, pear, peach and fig trees, beans, and corn. Everything here is raised from seed in Brookgreen's greenhouses, then transplanted into the garden. No pesticides are used. They follow the IPM (Integrated Pest Management) course which teaches that pesticides are used as a last resort. They prefer natural things such as lady bugs and praying mantises.

The Tradition Master Gardeners will be working with our Building and Grounds Committee and landscaper, assisting in the planning and selection of flowers prior to the spring and fall plantings.

For further information about this course, you may either call Brookgreen or e-mail Gary Forrester at GFRRSTR@aol.com. The next course will start on September 4 in Conway.

To All Food Enthusiasts

Are you interested in good food and good company? Several Tradition residents have considered starting a Gourmet Diner's Club. Every two to three months the Club couples would be divided into groups of four. One couple of each group would host the dinner at their home. The other three couples would be assigned to prepare and bring a portion of the dinner menu. It's a fun time and provides an opportunity to meet new people.

If you have any interest in joining such a group, contact Dot Franco, 237-9190.

Ladies Nine Hole Golf League

Whether you're a seasoned golfer looking for some practice or a beginner, the Ladies 9 Hole Golf League can be an enjoyable day on the golf course. The League plays every Tuesday. The sign up sheet is on the Bulletin Board at the Golf Clubhouse in the members' room. Come out and have some fun with these ladies.

Golf Tip by Steve Dresser

PGA Professional Director Tradition Golf School

Here's the tip of the month.

This month's golf tip has to do with course management. Following is some age old but timeless wisdom that may save you a few strokes.

Slicers: Tee up on the extreme right hand side of the tee box so you can aim out to the left and play for your slice. If you hook the ball, tee up on the left side so there's room to aim right and allow the ball to curve back to the fairway. Remember, only your golf ball needs to be between the markers, not your body.

Par 5's and long par 4's: If you're playing a hole that will require at least 3 shots to reach the green, you might do best by teeing off with something other than a driver. There's no need to hit your longest possible shot since you won't be going for the green on the next shot anyway.

Short siding: This means missing the green on the same side on which the hole is located. This leaves an awkward pitch with very little green to work with. Watch the tour players and notice how often they hit to the right of the flag if the hole is on the left side of the green and vice versa. A few years back when Fred Couples made his first ever hole in one a reporter asked him why it took so long to make one. His response was, "Probably because I rarely aim at the pin on a par 3." Think about that.

Short game: In general, use the least amount of loft the shot will allow. In other words, putt it rather than chip it and chip it rather than pitch it. It's much easier to roll the ball to the hole than it is to carry it. And if you don't "short side" yourself you won't have to carry it!

These are just a few simple tips. If you have any questions, feel free to stop by the golf school.

Art Exhibit

Jef Sturm, who lives at 171 Deacon Drive, has been asked to exhibit his oil paintings at The Art Works in The Litchfield Exchange. Jef is a graphic designer and artist. He's been painting off and on for over 30 years and has recently started to exhibit his work. Next time you are at the Litchfield Exchange, drop in The Art Works and enjoy.

Relay For Life By Veronica Buccella

The Tradition Swingers worked very hard for the American Cancer Society's annual Relay for Life and it paid off. They made over $11,000 for the charity. The Swingers received an award for being the top money making team. They raised money through the 50s Dance, selling signage to local businesses, selling luminaries in memory of loved ones and cancer survivors, and a cake sale. Piggly Wiggly and BiLo were the two largest contributors.

2002 Ryder Cup Tournament

This year's Ryder Cup Tournament was a three-round event played on consecutive Mondays. Gambeski's Gamblers, trailing after two rounds, made an amazing comeback to defeat the Strasser/Hajec Hijackers 68 to 64 points. John Hendrickson made the second round more exciting with his first "ace" of his golfing career. John's "ace" was on hole #2 playing 150 yards. John's playing partners were Tom Strasser, Frank D'Amato, and Lewis Bowers. John's next goal is to shoot his age for 18 holes!!! Congratulations, John.

Tradition vs. Crowfield—Home/Away Tournament

The first half of the Home/Away was played on July 29th at the Tradition. The tournament was well attended with a total of 56 players taking part. After 14 matches, Crowfield leads 17-11. A nice lunch was served by the Tradition snack bar after the matches. The remaining matches will be held at Crowfield on August 3rd. See Jim Massie if you haven't signed up yet.

Two-Man Tournament

The Two-Man Team Tournament will be completed in late July. See the next issue for final standings.

The President's Cup Tournament

This year's tournament will be played July 8th through August 12th.
